

Easy Read Provision of Supports

Senses will provide a culturally safe environment for you when delivering support to you.

We will safeguard your dignity and quality of life when providing supports.

Behaviour support practitioners, and support workers receive training. You can be assured that your support worker is fully trained, qualified, and experienced to provide supports to you.

Senses has committed to reducing and/or eliminating the use of restrictive practices.

If there is ever a requirement to have a restrictive practice, a statement of intent to use a restrictive practice will be given to you and your supports or advocate.

A statement of intent is a document.

Senses will determine your capacity to consent to the use of a restrictive practice and/or work with your supports or advocate to help you.

Easy Read

Provision of Supports

Your support worker will help you and your family to understand the NDIS Commission's behaviour support function.

We will speak to you about the supports you require.

You can make your own decisions relating to the supports provided.

We will provide you with appropriate support that you and your family are safe.

We will respect your cultural beliefs and practices when providing you with support services.

We can provide you a support worker of the same gender or cultural background.

We can provide you with an interpreter.

Easy Read Provision of Supports

For further information please contact us follows:

Telephone on 1300 111 881

Send us an e-mail – admingroup@senses.org.au

Send a letter to the CEO, Senses Australia's
PO Box 143,
Burswood, WA, 6100

In person to any Senses Australia employee or volunteer